

The 'd' Sound

Read the story. Can you find any 'd' words?
Look for d, dd or ed.

Remember to read the word to check it has the right sound before you highlight it.

The trained dancer planned a special dance for her wedding. After the guests had dined, she would get them all lined up in rows – one on each side and one in the middle. When she waved, the dance would begin. Faces would get redder as the dance got faster.

The 'd' Sound

Read the story. Can you find any 'd' words?
Look for d, dd or ed.

Remember to read the word to check it has the right sound before you highlight it.

The trained dancer planned a special dance for her wedding. After the guests had dined, she would get them all lined up in rows – one on each side and one in the middle. When she waved, the dance would begin. Faces would get redder as the dance got faster.

The 'd' Sound - Answers

The trained dancer planned a special dance for her wedding. After the guests had dined, she would get them all lined up in rows – one on each side and one in the middle. When she waved, the dance would begin. Faces would get redder as the dance got faster.

The 'd' Sound - Answers

The trained dancer planned a special dance for her wedding. After the guests had dined, she would get them all lined up in rows – one on each side and one in the middle. When she waved, the dance would begin. Faces would get redder as the dance got faster.